Hi Alex,

It was great pleasure and wonderful experience working with you for last 1.5 years (2009-11). The co-operation has been excellent all the time. You have been highly professional and supportive. Your openness and 100% transparency are very unique that helped in building high amount of trust in our relationship.

You have excellent project management skills that were demonstrated both in AXE Design Maintenance TPM role and B2E Transfer PM role. You are highly result oriented and yet highly supportive. You challenge the teams to achieve best performances by defining new measurements and setting tough yet achievable targets as was done with new KPI definitions in DM areas.

I wish you all the best for your future endeavors.
